LONDON CELEBRATED SIGNING OF ARMISTICE

London, Nov. 11—(British Wireless Service). — The lord mayor of London, who in response to calls from the crowds, came to the front of the mansion house, said: “Citizens of London: Let us congratulate ourselves on the great news that our four years of strenuous work has now come to an end and that we see before us the result of the strenuous labor of Great Britain and her allies. Let us not forget that there is still work for every loyal and patriotic citizen in the re-construction and many other problems which must arise. I will only say now let us give three cheers for His Majesty.” To this there was great response.

At the admiralty there were calls for a speech from Sir Eric Geddes, the First Lord. The crowds had collected there and hastily improvised platforms were erected for the First Lord and members of the board of admiralty. Sir Eric Geddes called for three cheers for Vice Admiral Beatty (commander of the grand fleet) and these having been given with great fervor the crowds again asked for a speech, but the cheering drowned all else. The First Lord called for cheers for the British bluejackets.

A special service of prayer was held at St. Paul’s this afternoon, the lord mayor and sheriffs attending.
