Period 5: Industrialization and Global Interactions

Directions: Use this study guide to help prepare for our upcoming test. Keep in mind this is not an EXACT list of questions nor topics for this historical period, but yet a broad spectrum to touch on as many topics as possible in preparation for our assessment. Good Luck!

1. Are there continuities and breaks between the chronological periods?
2. What are the causes of changes from the previous period and within this period?
3. What is the evidence of the above changes?
4. What are the changes in patterns of world trade? Are there any similarities from previous periods?
5. How did the Industrial Revolution transform industrial and scientific developments?
6. What effects did the Industrial Revolution have on societal institutions and gender roles?
7. Are there commonalities in the changes across cultures?
8. Analyze migration patterns from this historical period.
9. What are the causes of the END of the Atlantic slave trade?
10. What impact did the change in global commerce, communications and technologies have on birthrate patterns and food supply?
11. How did the Industrial Revolution impact the following:
   - Commercial and demographic developments
   - Emancipation of serfs/slaves
12. Explain the social tensions that resulted as ideas about work and gender roles changed.
13. Compare / contrast the roles of women in various cultures during this period. i.e. China vs. England.
14. Compare / contrast the various Latin American independence movements.
15. Using TWO of the following Revolutions, outline the stages of revolutionary progress:
   - United States
   - France
   - Haiti
   - Mexico
   - China
   - 1848 Revolutions
16. Explain the rise of Nationalism, nation-states and movements of political reform.
17. Explain the similarities and differences between nations and empires.
18. Describe the rise of democracy and its limitations with regard to: reform, women and race relations.
19. Use SPRITE to describe the patterns of expansion, including Imperialism and colonialism, as well as different cultural and political reactions (reform, resistance, rebellion, racism and other nationalistic movements).
20. Explain the impact of changing European ideologies on colonial administrations.
21. What are the debates over the utility of modernization theory as a framework for interpreting events in this historical period as well as period #6?
22. What are the debates about the causes of serf and slave emancipation in this historical period? How do these debates fit into broader comparisons of labor systems?
23. What are the debates of the nature of women’s roles in this period and how do these debates apply to industrialize areas and how do they apply in colonial societies?